Project: Black Tea Cooperative Work

India

Project: Black Tea Cooperative Work

- In partnership with SSVP Belgium
- Tea planters were paid a miserable salary
- They were exploited by the big tea producers in Kerala
- SSVP intervened in the process, organized workers into cooperatives, offered courses and economic consultation
- Production was improved, with the preparation of tea bags in boxes of 100 units
- Workers' wages improved 200%. Now they live a decent life with their families

Project: Weaving with love

Brazil - 1

Project: Weaving with love

- Weaving rag rugs for the home.
- Beneficiary: Mrs. Antônia da Silva Medeiros.
- City: Águas Lindas, State of Goias, Brazil (near Brasilia).
- After consultation and classes (four-week course), Ms. Antônia started to weave the rugs.
- She sells 8 rugs per week, around BRL 480,00 (1/2 minimum salary in Brazil).
- Now, she is no longer assisted by SSVP!

Project: Community Vegetable Garden

Brazil - 4

Project: Community Vegetable Garden

- City of Curuçá, State of Pará, Brazil
- The region suffered from a lack of water and little rainfall.
- People used to walk many kilometers to get water.
- SSVP local Conference helped to build artesian wells to extract water from the subsoil.
- With water, the poor community in the region began to produce (and sell) vegetables.

Brazil - 4

Project: Community Vegetable Garden

- A community vegetable garden with an irrigation system was created. Three families were benefited. Income of BRL 1,500 for each one.
- Water brought quality of life to the population, and generated income for the poorest.
- Residents can reap fresh vegetables; what is left over is sold at fairs, including in the state capital, Belém.
- Mr. Ronildo do Espírito Santo Pinheiro is one of the beneficiaries of the project. Now he is very happy to support his family with the effort of his own work.

Project: Livestock Raising Project

Grenada - 2

Project: Livestock Raising Project

- Food security has been an on-going goal of the SSVP Grenada and to that end a number of agricultural and livestock programs have been instituted with the support of the Council of England and Wales.

- Currently the Eastern Particular Council has projects in two rural communities where livestock is raised and sold on a continuous basis both as a means of generating on-going income for families and assisting in food security.

- The locally produced meat both reduces the financial strain on poor families and improves nutrition within the home.

Grenada - 2

Project: Livestock Raising Project

- The project is supervised by the SSVP. The SSVP provides the animals to the recipients who are directly responsible for their care.
- The animals are raised and sold by the recipients on an on-going basis.
- They are however required to give back either one or two offspring to the SSVP so that the project can be extended to other families.
- The projects are geared both at the disadvantaged young offenders and disadvantaged families.
