

Society of Saint Vincent de Paul – CV – Curriculum Vitae

Eduardo Marques Almeida

I don't think the CV is an effective tool to support electoral processes at the SSVP, because it implies comparisons. I have always believed that "God does not choose the qualified, he qualifies the chosen". In other words, the challenge is to identify more the mercy of the heart than the education or professional experience of the candidates.

However, it is a requirement of the IGC electoral process for each candidate to present their experience in performing the mission of which they aspire to be the greater server.
